

The collection and maintenance of this information are authorized under the Education Act, R.S.O., 1990, c. E.2, s. 266. Users of this information are supervisory officers and the principal and teachers of the school. This is the official record of the student's educational history. The contact person regarding the collection of this information is the principal of the school.